

Great cinema in the Jungfrau Region

True home to great legends and heroes

GREAT CINEMA IN THE JUNGFRAU REGION

J.R.R. Tolkien hiked through the Lauterbrunnen Valley when he was 19. Not far from there, Sherlock Holmes plunged into the depths of the Reichenbach Falls. Further up, the Sith took their revenge on the Jedi. Somewhere else, Gellert Grindelwald built his castle Nurmengard. And not to forget: Bond, James Bond was also on a visit here. No kidding.

These blockbusters speak for themselves. (Almost) everyone knows them. No need to explain further. And there's even a connecting element. A uniquely diverse region in the heart of Switzerland: the Jungfrau Region.

Hiking package to the places of inspiration and filming in the Jungfrau Region. Including luggage transport.
